DANCE ALL NIGHT at D/C Party and D/C Ball

Montreal, June 13, 2007 – Divers/Cité's fifteenth edition goes out with a bang Sunday, August 5 with not one, but two official parties! This final night of festivities will last well into the wee hours as festival-goers celebrate and let themselves go on the dance floor.

First, from 22h to 3h, the D/C Party takes over club Unity. Then, party-goers will head over to after hours D/C Ball at Stereo Nightclub, where they can boogie until morning. (That is, if they're not there already -- doors open at 01h.)

Known for their incredible music and incomparable vibes, the D/C parties always feature some of the most in-demand names on the international DJ scene, as well as hot local talent. This year is no exception! Offer Nissim, the Tel Aviv-based DJ and producer who instantly became a Montreal legend after spinning at last year's Divers/Cité, is back for round two! Israel's favourite musical export (who is also DJing at La Grande Danse) will shake the foundations of club Unity at the D/C Party. Clubbers can expect a night of Offer's trademark progressive and tech-house concoctions, not to mention that special connection between DJ and dance floor that he always creates! It's no wonder he's remixed the likes of Madonna, Beyoncé, and Christina Aguilera. A special DJ booth has even been constructed to bring Offer closer to his crowd. Montreal's DJ Malick is opening.

Then, after hours, the dancing continues till morning at the D/C Ball, happening at internationally famed club Stereo. New York DJ Peter Rauhofer is back to work his magic upon the club's coveted sound system. He hasn't been behind Stereo's decks since 2005 and is sure to treat his crowd to a comeback they'll never forget! The Vienna-born DJ and producer is the mastermind of indie label Star 69 Records. Joining Rauhofer are Toronto's Deko-Ze and Montreal's Jester. With so much talent in just one night, partyers will hopefully take home enough memories to last until next year's Divers/Cité!
