PARK IT IN THE SEXGARAGE with Vive la Fête and a rocking after party

Montreal, June 13, 2007 – Divers/Cité is thrilled to welcome Belgian electro-pop icons Vive La Fête (VLF) to headline Sexgarage! Hosted and curated by Montreal's outrageous performer and musician Plastik Patrik, the annual Sexgarage party is as glam as it is sleazy! Featuring edgy beats, trashy glamour, and a rock-meets-electro soundtrack, Sexgarage is Divers/Cité's most cutting-edge event.

Live on the Berri/René-Lévesque stage, Vive la Fête will debut material from their anticipated fifth album, Jour de Chance. Expect hot synth lines, grinding danceable beats, and the whispery French vocals of stunning front woman Els Pynoo. Her lover Danny Mommens (former bassist of dEUS) is the band's front man.

Inspired by techno, new wave, synth pop and other electronic stuff, Pynoo and Mommens hooked up both musically and personally in 1997. Five years later, they became darlings of the high fashion world when Chanel honcho Karl Lagerfeld pronounced himself their biggest fan and invited the whole band to play live at his Paris Chanel show. Monaco's royal family even booked them to play the celebrity-studded Bal de la Rose.

Also performing at Sexgarage are Montreal electro mainstays Frigid and Mission District. Frigid (aka Joffrey Dumas) will treat fans to hits from his 2006 Bedroom Sessions album, while post-punk outfit Mission District shriek poignantly about love and despair.

Sexgarage closes shop at 23h, but l'Après Sexgarage is open for business! Our motley crew of Sexgaragers will rev their engines and cruise over to the National for l'Après Sexgarage, where the edgy post-punk and electro vibe will continue until 3h. Don't miss the world premiere of Patrik et les Brutes (Yes, that's Plastik Patrik's new project.) Keeping it all together are popular local DJs Pat Dynamite and Jordan Dare, who will spin you into the dark side.
